Casio World Time

my aphrodite
lives in a box
she sends me signals through a man-made moon all 10 bytes of i love you encoded in a radiowave 7 hours of time displaced baking replies in microwave photographing a mirror counting pixels on her face

lives in a chat box digitized love
turn your senses off spend it on porn spend it on a chatbot

Comet

a comet's tail makes a comet's bridge cutting through the galaxy connecting two skies
one dyed in gold the other painted in black when my sun sets it reveals a staircase to your moon
i get on my knees to climb the altar that is you my heart on a plate above my head serving to that gilded throne of you

Neptune

how blue is the neptunes eye reflected in her iris an infinite sky not a single brush on this canvas no birds nor clouds nor planets only a moon rises over the horizon bury me in this delightful oblivion i am falling infinitely fast into the sweet embrace of her eyes
